What to Expect & Useful Tips

Crowds / Lines

- Please note that the poster session gets crowded, particularly later in the morning.
- Note that bathrooms may develop lines during scheduled breaks.
- Please be mindful when stopping to chat in main thoroughfares, as some individuals may need additional space to maneuver.

Seating

- Accessible seating for the plenary session is available in the rear section of the auditorium, to the right or left.

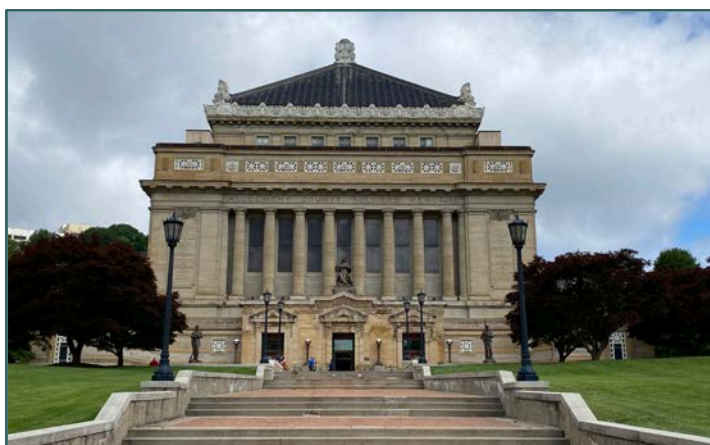

Sensory Considerations

Volume/Hearing During Poster Session

- For those with noise sensitivity, please note that the poster session can be loud.

Temperature

- Some rooms can get warm. Consider dressing in layers.

Need Help? FAQs

Where can I take a short break?

- The back of the auditorium can serve as a quieter space during the morning. Additional options include space outside (weather permitting), as well as the seating behind the Soldiers & Sailors welcome desk (main lobby).

How do I access the lactation space?

- Please inquire at the Research Day registration desk.

Where do I get my lunch?

- If you have a roundtable assignment, go directly to your table. Your lunch will be waiting for you on the table.

Where is my lunchtime roundtable?

- Check the back of your nametag for your roundtable assignment, location, and your lunch order.
- Roundtables will be held on the 3rd floor of Soldiers & Sailors and the 2nd floor of the O'Hara Student Center. Elevators are available at both locations.

Where can I pick up my lunch if I'm not participating in a roundtable?

- If you requested a lunch but are not assigned to a roundtable, go to the 1st floor of the O'Hara Student Center to get your lunch and find a seat.
